(Inland Water Transport Directorate)

New Delhi, the 13th November 1968

G.S.R. 2076.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment of Assistant River Surveyor in the Inland Water Transport Directorate, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) The rules may be called the Inland Water Transport Directorate (Assistant River Surveyor) Recruitment Rules, 1968.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the post in the Inland Water Transport Directorate as specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed hereto.

3. Number, Classification and Scale of Pay.—The number of post, its classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in column 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of Recruitment, Age Limit and Other Qualification.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said post shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the said Schedule;

Provided that the upper age limit specified in columns 6 of the said Schedule for direct recruits may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders of the Central Government issued from time to time.

5. Disqualifications.—(1) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the said post, and

(11) No woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the said post;

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Liability to serve in the Defence Services.—Any person possessing a degree in Engineering or holding equivalent qualification appointed to the aforesaid post on or after the date of publication of these rules shall, if so required be liable to serve in any Defence Services or post connected with the Defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any:

Provided that such person:—

(i) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment;

(ii) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

7. Reservation of vacancies for Persons who join Armed Forces during Emergency.—(1) Fifty per cent of the permanent vacancies which are to be filled by direct recruitment shall be reserved for graduate engineers who were commissioned in the Armed Forces on temporary basis during the period of operation of the Proclamation of Emergency issued under clause (1) of article 352 of the Constitution on the 26th October 1962, and are later released.

(2) Only such of those persons shall, however, be entitled to be considered for the vacancies so reserved as would have been eligible for appointment against these posts if they had not joined the Armed Forces and are physically fit according to the rule applicable to the service.

8. Power to Relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules in respect of any class or category of persons.
